BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the Little Liver and Bowels, and They Get Well Quick

When your child suffers from a cold, don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat, give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs," to evacuate the bowels, no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

IN BLOOD DISEASES

Like Scrofula, Eczema, and Many Skin Troubles.

as well as a general spring medicine for catarrh, rheumatism, dyspepsia, Hood's Sarsaparilla is of great value to men, women, children.

It does its thorough work in these well-defined diseases by cleansing the blood, on the pure, healthy condition of which depend the vigor and tone of the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is equally successful in the treatment of troubles that are not so well-defined—cases of a low or run-down condition or general debility, loss of appetite and that tired feeling, or cases in which we now very plainly after-effects of the worry and anxiety caused by the world war and the debility following the grip, influenza and fevers. In all such ailments it has accomplished a wonderful amount of good.

JOIE RAY HOPES TO BETTER HIS RECORD

In the One Thousand Yard Feature Event at the Amateur Athletic Union Meet in New York.

New York, March 8.—With past and present champions and star athletes entered in seven track events and four field contests, the Mealey relay race, which will wind up to-night's program of the national senior indoor championship meet of the Amateur Athletic Union, will bring together three great college teams and four of the best club teams in the eastern section. The entries for the relay are Pennsylvania, Lafayette, Columbia, Boston A. A., Meadow Brook, Philadelphia, Millrose A. A. and Gloucester A. A. of this city.

The meet, which will be held at the 13th armory, Brooklyn, should furnish several keen competitions and probably one or more new records.

Joie Ray of Chicago, hopes to better his world's mark of 2:14 in the one thousand yard feature, in which he will have as competitors Campbell and Stout of Chicago, Caldwell, Boston, Devaney and Baker of New York, and probably Brown, the junior champion, and Larry Scudler, the former University of Pennsylvania star. Some of these men also will race in the six hundred yard event, which is placed later on the program, against the title holder, Gustavson, Ted Meredith, Dave Caldwell, Halpin and Frank Shea of Pittsburgh, the intercollegiate champion.

Loren Murchison, the young sprinting wonder from St. Louis, is favored to win the sixty yard dash, but he will meet some stiff opposition in the three hundred yard run from Shea, Rose of Boston and Smith of Philadelphia. Nightingale, Stout and Bohlman are the pick of the two-mile runners, while local entrants seem to have the two mile walk, high hurdle and shot put in safe keeping. In the standing broad and high jumps, Lieutenant W. H. Taylor, Marietta, Ohio, and J. C. Haskins, Chicago, may divide the honors, if they are in as good form as when they appeared here two years ago.

SEVERAL GOOD GAMES.

Are Listed on University of Vermont's Schedule.

Burlington, March 8.—The University of Vermont preliminary baseball schedule has been issued by manager Arthur Hogan.

So far, there are six home games scheduled, the first will be played on May 1 with Dartmouth college. The first game is with Harvard at Cambridge. There are still six games for which the dates are pending, and of the colleges with which the university usually plays, no dates could be arranged with Colgate, Syracuse, Columbia, Yale or Amherst because of the shortness of the season. For this same reason no southern trip schedule was attempted.

It is thought that there will be several additions to the list, but the schedule as it now stands is as follows:

April 26—Harvard at Cambridge, Mass.

May 1—(Founder's day) Dartmouth at Burlington.

May 3—Middlebury at Middlebury.

May 8—Springfield V. M. C. A. college at Burlington.

May 10—Trinity college at Burlington.

May 16—Wesleyan at Middletown, Conn.

May 17—Crescent Athletic club at New York City.

May 21—Norwich at Burlington.

May 24—Massachusetts Agricultural college at Burlington.

May 27—Dartmouth at Hanover, N.H.

May 30—Junior week, Middlebury at Burlington.

June 19—Williams at Williamstown, Mass.

June 21—Y. M. C. A. at Amherst, Mass.

S. H. S. SHOOTING WAS SUPERIOR

And Gave Home Team 35 to 21 Victory Over People's Academy

EXCITING GAME WAS CHEERED BY CROWD

McHardy of Spaulding Was High Scorer of the Evening

One of the fastest basketball games of the season was staged last evening in the Spaulding gymnasium between the team from that school and the fast quintet from the Peoples academy of Morrisville, with Spaulding adding another victory to her credit to the tune of 35 to 21.

The game was, as usual, divided into two 20-minute periods, with a 10-minute interval. It was at 8:05 when the whistle starting the game was blown and the period ended at 8:25, while the second period was from 8:35 to 8:55. The ever present cheer-leaders and rooters were out in full force and took advantage of every dull moment to make the gymnasium resound with their cheers and songs, having their usual accompaniment in the person of Cornetist Biz-zozero.

From the very start, both teams displayed great speed and teamwork and also showed evidences of considerable practice. It was not very long before Spaulding caged the ball and, not to be too much outdone, the visitors did the same. The contestants seemed to take turns in leading throughout the first period, one moment Spaulding would be ahead and the next minute Peoples academy would be ahead. Both teams showed lightning speed in covering the floor and played very good games, both offensive and defensive. The first period ended with Spaulding in the lead with the score of 13 to 9.

The second period opened a great deal like the first, with the exception that both teams were fighting harder, if such a thing were really possible, as they both fought hard during the first period. As fast as the visiting five would score a basket, Spaulding would also score one and quite often two. Towards the last, the out of town boys had a little more luck with the ball and played a little better, but their rallying was in vain, for the local team redoubled their efforts and held them down just the same. The shooting of the Spaulding players was superior, although the playing of the Morrisville team was practically as good.

McHardy and Brown were the featuring players for the local team, while Howard and Churchill starred for the visitors. All who attended the game were not disappointed, as it was all that it was promised to be and then some. This game should help to pull Spaulding up a little higher and put her closer in the running. Fouls were somewhat in evidence last evening, 19 being called during the game. Ten were called on Peoples academy and nine on Spaulding.

The highest scorer of the evening was McHardy of Spaulding with a total of six baskets from the floor and seven baskets on fouls to his credit. Howard of the visiting team gained second with two baskets from the floor and seven baskets on fouls. Lillie of Spaulding and Churchill of P. A. were tied for third place with four baskets apiece.

The usual social dance followed the game and was held in the assembly hall. It was open to students and alumni of the school and also to the visiting players.

The summary of the game was as follows:

GREETED RETURNED SOLDIERS.

Bureau of Naturalization Will Conduct Americanization Work Among Those Who Served Broad.

Alien soldiers in the American army will be welcomed back to America with the opportunity to become citizens, according to plans now under way by the bureau of naturalization, department of labor.

Large numbers of aliens enlisted in the army or were drafted and waived exemption. Many thousands went overseas before any Americanization program was taken up in the military camps and cantonments of this country. Now that these men are returning, after a most convincing demonstration of their loyalty to their adopted land, the bureau is endeavoring to interest them in becoming citizens and will give them every facility to do so.

Any soldier may become a citizen without payment of fee and with no requirement as to residence in this country. He has only to appear before a naturalization examiner, who comes frequently to every camp, and to bring with him two superior officers who will vouch for his loyalty and character. He then makes application for citizenship, and at any time thereafter may take the oath of allegiance before a judge having jurisdiction in naturalization cases. When he takes the oath of allegiance he must be identified.

Aliens who have been discharged from the military service may become citizens without the usual residence requirement, provided they have two civilians who will vouch for them.

After years of terrible torture, I read about 'Fruit-a-tives' or Fruit Liver Tablets, and sent for a trial box and wrote that it was the last remedy I would use—if 'Fruit-a-tives' did not help me, I would die.

After taking the trial box, I felt better, so kept on taking 'Fruit-a-tives' for nearly a year, and am thankful to say 'Fruit-a-tives' saved my life.

It also saved a friend from an operation for Stomach Trouble, after he had given up all hope of getting well".

HARBOR STRIKE PARTLY BROKEN

Thousands of Men, Accepting Government Offer, Return to Work

MEDIATOR TO MEET PRIVATE SHIP OWNERS

Conferences Will Be Held During the Day on That Side of the Trouble

New York, March 8.—With the backbone of the harbor strike broken through the agreement of the employees of the railroad boats to return to work immediately, James L. Hughes, a conciliator of the federal department of labor, to-day endeavored to induce the private boat owners to agree to the terms granted yesterday by the railroad administration.

The terms included the granting of an eight-hour day and wage increases amounting to more than 30 per cent in some cases.

About 5,000 of the strikers, employees of the railroad administration, returned to their duties during the night and early to-day. Representatives of the remaining 11,000 strikers planned to hold a conference during the day with officials of the New York Boat Owners' association and the United States shipping board.

THE JOYS OF STAYING IN.

Philosophical View of Internment in the House on a Rainy Day.

Can there be a holier joy than that of staying indoors? Surely not, to anyone who is not irrevocably grown up. The window is blurred with rain. Through it are dimly seen the bare, black trees huddling together to keep warm, and there is an ever broadening puddle on the gravel walk. You have a clear conscience or, what is still better, an indefeasible legal right to stay in, for it is certain that it cannot clear up and that you shall not be remorselessly hurried out for a walk.

The art of taking off the boots is symbolic; there can be no proper peace of mind as long as they are on. Finally, and of course, there is a roaring fire, which, living only for the day, laughs at the real controller. There is no thrill like that of snugness, and Mr. Pickwick said the last word on the subject when, seated in the Wardle family circle on Christmas eve, he exclaimed in the fullness of his heart, "This is indeed comfort." For it will be remembered that there was a wind that rumbled in the chimney and drifted the snow across the fields in a thick white cloud.

Particularly is staying in a boon in this wintry season of festivities, since it is idle to deny, tend to produce an atmosphere of slight peevishness on the morrow. It was once admirably described by a small girl: "Somewhat Made-moiselle always seems a perfect tiger the day after I've been to a party." On such a day the blessed rain can wash away the tears before they are shed. There are, to be sure, some tiresome, fussy notions to be combated, to the effect that there is a chance of polishing off unpleasant duties. There is a bookcase, the work of weeks at a carpentering class, which now requires only the last finishing touches, and is yet a milestone round the neck. There are letters, long overdue, to thank for birthday presents, which began with a rush: "Thank you so much for your novelty" and were then cast aside in inkly despair. But duty is for every day, not for precious moments directly vouchsafed.

For anyone lucky enough to have a slide, a wet day was intended for sliding, and there is an end of the matter.

The slide is not so well known as it deserves. Its purpose is explained by its name. It is a strip of polished wood, some two feet wide, and varying in length with the height of the staircase or the caution of the parent. On either side are two small ledges, or handrails, to prevent the quite ridiculously young from falling off. It is hitched onto the required step of the staircase by a cross-piece of wood underneath. The father of all slides, which has now a number of descendants disseminating happiness, is long enough to reach the eighth step, and when you can do the top step standing up you have become a very perfect gentle slider. The very young begin sitting down and holding on at the second or third step, and after a leisurely progress arrive almost imperceptibly at the bottom. They soon develop courage, how-

CHEERFUL WORDS

For Many a Barre Household.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of Barre readers.

E. L. House, barber, 10 West street, Barre, says:

"I suffered from backache for some time, which was caused by being on my feet for long periods during the day. My back ached continually. The pains were sharp when I bent over. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, and I got a box at Cummings & Lewis' drug store. I soon received satisfactory relief from them."

ever, and a person of three has been known to come crashing to the floor from the seventh step or so, exclaiming ecstatically "More bump!" and scramble up again, to crash once more. His enthusiasm was sorely diminished next day, but he had won his spurs.

There are many fests of fancy sliding which are very easy, but look very imposing; or you can play a game of follow-my-leader, following each other in attitudes esteemed humorous. There is, too, as a rule, a press-gang, which pounces on passing housemaids or uncles and compels them to walk this modern plank. Nor are the elders, if they have been properly brought up, so unwilling as they pretend. "Just one" has been known to lengthen into half an hour, only brought to a regretful halt by luncheon time. For that glorious rush from the top step that wears such holes in your socks, and as nothing else in the world, and the call of the slide once heard is forever in your ears.—London Times.
